

Champion Flight. Isaac Mariera and Lillian Koowe shone at the final leg of the I&M Bank Katogo Golf Series at Entebbe Club, mastering the 'In Regulation' format to claim top honours. Mariera finished 68 nett and Koowe 75 nett, each winning a RwandAir return ticket, impressing the field with precision, skill, and a celebration of both competition and camaraderie.

Precision masters crowned at finale

Glitz & Glamour. The day's best dressed and the winners at the I&M Bank Katogo Golf Series share the podium at the end of the prize giving ceremony at Entebbe Club on November 29. PHOTO/ EDDIE CHICCO

Fairway King. Isaac Mariera claimed the men's overall title at the final leg with a scintillating 68 nett.

Golf Glam. Nice Janda strikes a stylish pose with her Stanley just before teeing off on the day.

Extraordinary Man. I&M Bank CEO Robin Bairstow (L) is presented with an honorary award for his support of the Katogo Golf Series by Annet Nakiyaga (L), who is also a common figure on the golf fairways

Wayward Shot. Oscar Semawere's ball ended up deep in the pine trees at Entebbe.

Kutch Rd Boy. The Jinja-born and bred Casper Tevin Okiru follows his iron's flight at last Saturday's round on the par-71 Entebbe Club.

Full Swing. Counsel Paul Katuramu watches the apex of his ball off No.10.

Mr Oil Himself. Daniel Muwooya committed no less than 100 per cent effort on this particular shot during the finale.

Fairway Finder. Lady golfer Ruth Mugisha split the fairway on the third hole.