

PHOTOS BY MIRIAM NAMUTEBI AND PATRICK KIBIRANGO

CHILDREN END YEAR ON HIGH NOTE

Children enjoying a Ferris wheel ride during the Toto Christmas Festival at Kampala Parents' School playground yesterday

Bruno Betty (right) gifting children during the Toto festival at Kampala Parents' School playground yesterday

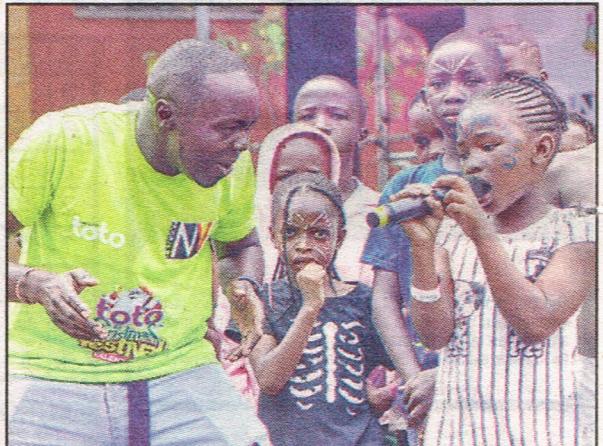

Alisha Namulawa (second-right), who was second in the dancing competition, displays her sh300,000 cash prize during the festival

END-OF-YEAR BASH

Children from different walks of life came to crown the year with fun at the Toto Christmas Festival. The event was organised by Vision Group and sponsored by Indomie Instant Noodles, Pepsi, Toyota Uganda, SUMZ, Ruparelia Group and the National Identification and Registration Authority. After a full day of fun, many walked away with memories, gifts and even cash prizes.

See related story on Page 8.

Bruno Betty of Bukeedde TV (left) joins children on stage to entertain people during the Toto Christmas Festival at Kampala Parents' School playground

Children enjoying a camel ride during the festival

Melanie Kwagala (centre) won sh200,000 for her outstanding performance in the singing competition. She also received goodies from Indomie and SUMZ. On the right is Vision Group marketing head Lorraine Tukahirwa

Children playing in a swimming pool at Kampala Parents' School playground

Little Miss Uganda Ambassador joined in on the fun on Sunday