

Standard High school prioritises

By Gabriel Esiku

Co-curricular activities have become compulsory to every student at Standard High School Zzana Ndejje Campus.

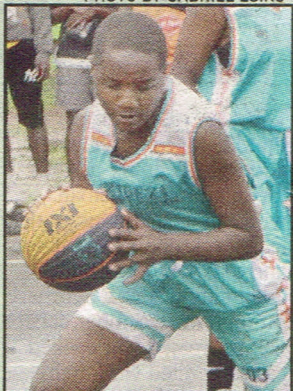

According to the school proprietor Justus Mugisha, students who engage in co-curricular activities such as sports discover their talents, while developing values and competences that will prepare them for the rapidly changing world.

Mugisha told Vision Sport that in the 2026 academic calendar administrators have resolved to have three hours in a week allocated for co-curricular activities.

"Every student old or new at standard high school Zzana, is expected to take part in any of the various sports discipline taking place at the schools, with the aim of talent development among learners that starts from schools," adds Mugisha.

He said, Standard High School Zzana, offers robust sports facilities including multiple football pitches, basketball courts, netball courts, and volleyball courts, alongside options for athletics, woodball, table tennis, swimming, badminton, and chess, as they develop their world-class sports environment with a focus on physical fitness and teamwork.

PHOTO BY GABRIEL ESIKU

A participant in action

Duncans Mugumya, the commissioner, physical education and sports, has continuously encouraged all schools to emphasise co-curricular activities.