

End of P7 marks start of next task

Jayden Mathew Okwalinga of Yudesi Nursery & Primary School celebrates after he scored Aggregate 9. PHOTO/ COURTESY

Benedict Ssakyewa of Leos Junior School Masaka is carried shoulder-high by his mother Rebecca Namulindwa and friends after he scored Aggregate 4. PHOTO/HANIFAH NANYANZI

Patience Naigaga (left) of KFM Junior School Kamuli celebrates with her mother after she scored Aggregate 8. PHOTO/SAM CALEB OPIO

Natalie Claire Kembabazi (centre) is congratulated by her mother and the head teacher of Child Africa Junior School in Kabale Town after she scored Aggregate 5 in last year's PLE yesterday. PHOTO/ ROBERT MUHEREZA

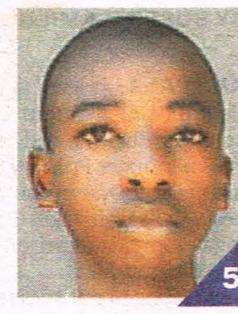

Administrators and teachers at Kabale Universal Nursery and Primary School in Kabale District jubilate after receiving PLE results. At least 60 candidates of the school passed in Grade One while one candidate passed in Grade Two. PHOTO/ROBERT MUHEREZA

Leticia Celestine Nakisige of Victorious Junior School Kamuli celebrates with her father and teachers after she scored Aggregate 5. PHOTO/SAM CALEB OPIO

Victor Mubiru, Nabunga Fountain Kalisizo

Philip Ddamullia, Sydney Primary School Kinoni

Benon Gumisiriza, Apex Primary School Kinoni

Emmanuel Alnesasi, Hillroad Primary School

Aisha Nakimbugwe, Hillroad Primary School

Hirwa Ineza, Sydney Paul Primary School Kinoni

Akram Mbaziira, Gombe Standard Primary Butambala

Huzaifa Kiseka, Gombe Standard Primary Butambala