

IRA asks insurers to counter AI forgeries:

The Insurance Regulatory Authority (IRA) chief executive officer Ibrahim Lubega Kaddunabi has urged insurers to counter rising AI-driven forgeries, warning that fraudsters are using advanced digital tools to fabricate convincing claims. With fraudulent claims expected to reach Shs1.2b, IRA wants stronger technology and collaboration.

