

New Queens. Light Secondary School, Soroti, celebrate after being crowned winners of the 22nd edition of the Sky View Girls Schools Cricket Week 2026 on May 9 after defeating Olila HS by 5 wickets at Gulu High School. PHOTOS/COURTESY & INNOCENT NDAWULA

Light SS strike twice for second title

Gulu Glory. In what was a week of wonder for the national post-primary girls cricket championship, Olila High School and fellow Soroti Cricket Academy hub school Light Secondary School produced an unbeaten campaigns until the grand finale. With discipline in the field, control with the ball, and composure in the chase, Light SS turned a highly anticipated final into a statement victory – signalling a subtle but significant change in Uganda’s growing cricket hierarchy.

Classy Ton. Mercy Tracy Kongai of Light SS scared celebrates a fine innings after reaching 100 not out.

Home Pride. Sacred Heart SS represented the hosting Northern Hub diligently by reaching the semifinals in Gulu.

Trusted Partner. Hariss International Key Accounts Supervisor Adam Lubanga drew excitement from schools after pledging continued support for the next edition in Masaka.

Cheers. St John's SS Mukono celebrate with Central Region champions gong.

South West Champs. Masaka SS batters scramble for a quick single against Light SS.

Best Seat. A young supporter enjoys an elevated view of the Mukono derby clash between St John's SS and Mt St Henry's from the sidelines.

Silver Finish. Olila HS receive their runners-up trophy from Movit Products Ltd Events Supervisor Happy Ampumuza (C) at the closing ceremony in Gulu City.